About this piece

A Glasgow School Arts and Crafts oak buffet with plank sides and central plank back, the accentuated tops and the split heart inlays, a typical detail of Taylor and Ednie. However, Ednie's work more closely follows Mackintosh's style, with the arched details at the bottom of the planks and turned disc details to the uprights. There is the sweetest square detail just above the turned disks. With these Mackintosh style details, it is more likely to be by him.

Height 48", width 48", depth 20" 1/2". Circa 1900.
