

A W N Pugin for Gillows. Two almost identical sets of Gothic Revival oak dining chairs designed for The House Of Lords

Ref: NIF 62C see also GO CH 40 and PUGIN 12

SOLD

MAKER	Gillows
DESIGNER	Augustus Welby Northmore Pugin
PERIOD	Gothic Revival
YEAR	1847
MATERIALS	Oak, Upholstery

About this piece

Two almost identical sets of Gothic Revival oak dining chairs designed by A W N Pugin for The House Of Lords and made by Gillows of Lancaster. Stamped Gillows to the back legs. Super quality and all in excellent original condition.

Consisting of : one set of 4 in red upholstery and one sets of 6 making a total of 10.

NOT: The set of six with show wood around the back rests are now sold (middle chair in primary image).

The first line of images show one chair from each set together for comparison. I will sell as separate sets.

Designed in 1847. H34 1/2". x W 17". x D 18"