About this piece

A. W. N. Pugin, in the style of. A Gothic Revival oak bracket or wall shelf with 45-degree chamfering throughout. The top provides an open display area, supported by a through-tenon and pegged joint uniting the arched side supports, each decorated with trefoils and three ball details, and finished with a Gothic arched motif to the back.

Of superb quality, it would be well-suited for displaying a large bracket clock, a statue, or another object of significance.
