About this piece

Bruce Talbert (attributed). A Gothic Revival oak open bookcase probably by Gillow and Co., with a pierced foliate cornice above plant panels, further carving and turning, 154cm high, 105cm wide, 34cm deep. This bookcase has similar finials and feet to the 'Pericles' cabinet which was the winner in the 1867 Paris Exhibition. Bruce Talbert used carved floral details, always differing, on many pieces designed for Gillow and Co. and Holland and Sons.
