

George Logan for Wylie and Lochhead. A carved walnut display cabinet

Ref: Designers and Makers 357

SOLD

MAKER	Wylie & Lochhead
DESIGNER	George Logan
YEAR	1901
MATERIALS	Lead, Walnut, Glass

About this piece

George Logan (d. 1939) for Wylie and Lochhead. A carved walnut display cabinet, circa 1901, the low back carved with a butterfly to a pierced reserve, with three coloured and leaded glass doors with birds in flight and harebells, 122cm high, 119cm wide A bedroom suite which he designed for the Wylie and Lochhead Pavilion at the exhibition of 1901 also has harebells and small carved butterflies which are almost identical, it is possible that this cabinet was exhibited.