About this piece

An impressive Gothic Revival oak fireplace surround attributed to Bruce Talbert with carved floral details to the top sides with turned supports with stunning hand-painted tiles attributed to Mintons (AJS?) depicting cranes and wading birds in riverside scenes with further tiles in green with little winged dragons back to back in raised relief surmounted with four smaller blue triangular details and smaller brown lozenge tiles and green marble effect tiles with zig-zag details. Measures: Height 57", length 78", mantel depth 15", opening height 45 1/4", width 38 3/4". The opening measurements could easily be made smaller to accommodate most size inserts.
