About this piece

Milk and sugar bowls in pewter, aligned to the Arts and Crafts movement (1880–1910), c.1905, English. Low, compressed bodies on shallow stepped feet with upright loop handles, the milk bowl with a short spout. Stamped “Made in England, English Pewter 0966.” The restrained, rounded profiles and practical proportions sit comfortably within Liberty and Co’s early twentieth-century metalwork vocabulary, a compact set suited to breakfast service or discreet display on a sideboard.
