About this piece

A rare set of 50 x Maw & Co., tiles

'Anglo-Persian' pattern designed by Lewis F Day. 51 in stock.

35 all in perfect original condition. 16 with varying degrees of damage, small and large chips, and 2 of the 16 have been broken in half and glued back together, but very well done.

Maw & Co., were the largest and probably the greatest tile maker in the world at the time, settled by the bank of the River Severn in Shropshire, Jackfield, the epicentre of the late 19th C and early 20th C tile industry.
