About this piece

Morris & Co., attributed

A fine quality Arts & Crafts oak treble linen press with cross banded inlays with extended squares to the corners, the upper section with three doors opening to reveal hanging space to the left, retaining the wide open drawers to the upper right, (the drawers could be removed and stored to allow a hanging bar to be installed to the top if required).

The lower section with nine large drawers with conforming inlays, all with wonderful hand formed copper handles made by Richard Rathbone. The last three period images showing some of Rathbone's work in The Studio.

Measures:

Height 89", width of cornice 81", depth of cornice 24".
