About this piece

A brass table lamp designed by W. A. S. Benson, formed with the sculptural simplicity characteristic of the Arts and Crafts Movement. The curved tubular stem rises from a heart-shaped base, a recurring motif in Benson's lighting designs that balanced geometry with organic form. The lamp retains its original brass finish and adjustable shade holder, showing fine craftsmanship in both proportion and joinery. Benson's designs exemplified the union of artistry and utility that defined the reformist ideals of late-Victorian decorative design.
